Please disclose any financial, business, professional or personal relationship or interest that would result or would appear to a reasonable person to result in a potential conflict of interest if you were to be elected to serve as a member of the Committee. Please State None if No conflicts are present.

Please disclose any other position you hold at present or have held in the past 2 years, on the board of any organisation.

As a member of the Committee a great investment of time is required throughout your tenure on the Board – including conference calls, email communications, participation on ad-hoc committees and Board work groups and other assignments as needed. The time commitment varies depending upon the position sought, and except for occasional personal circumstances that may arise, Board members are expected to attend and fully participate in all scheduled meetings of the Committee.

The memorandum of Articles cannot be changed by Directors alone but consent of all the members also. Directors need to consult with members before taking any major decisions.
